

Bridging the Gap CDC

WHAT'S IN THIS MONTH'S ISSUE:

- Donors
- Upcoming Events
- Meet Our Youth Volunteers

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Mr. & Mrs. Thurmon Leath, whose generous contribution of $1,000.00 to the We Care Pantry in Green Level, NC, has made a significant impact. Despite being retired, they continue to dedicate their time and resources to supporting our youth and community. Their commitment is truly commendable, and we are deeply appreciative.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- | | |
|------------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| April 17 - May 8, 2024 | Healthy Eating and Moving Cooking Classes |
| April 27, 2024 | Fundraiser - Gourmet Lamb Burgers Plates |
| August 24, 2024 | Fundraiser - Back to School Dance |

MEET OUR YOUTH VOLUNTEERS

Sariah Smith

Sariah, a sixth-grader at Orange Middle School in Hillsborough, NC, finds joy in engineering, art, and volleyball. Excelling academically with an A honor roll status, she particularly thrives in science.

Jorey Williamson

Jorey is an 11th grader at Cummings High School in Burlington, NC. He attends "Reach 1 Teach 1" mentoring program with McRae Barbershop in Graham, NC. He also loves volunteering with his grandmother.

Travis Lockley

Travis will be attending Roger's Herr Middle School in Durham, NC. this fall. He plays piano, swims, and will be playing community football this summer.

Makhi Enoch

Makhi is 20 years old, graduated from Graham High School in 2022, and attended Louisburg College. He was a 2016 graduate of the "Reach 1 Teach 1" mentoring program and has now joined the workforce.

Demond Martin

Demond, age 16, will be graduating from Eastern Alamance High School in 2025. He plans to spend his summer playing football, volunteering, mowing lawns, gaming, and grilling. He intends to enroll at Alamance Community College before pursuing engineering at N.C. State

Asia Rumley

Asia, a junior at Panther Creek High School, enjoys flag football, following NFL & women's basketball, and immersing herself in music. She wishes to become a licensed social worker, focusing on child and family welfare, with a minor in early childhood education.

Makayla Rumley

Makayla is a student at UNC Greensboro and is majoring in Kinesiology with a minor in ASL. She finds joy in baking delicious treats, hitting the gym to stay active and healthy, and expressing her creativity through painting.